
MERGER ANNOUNCEMENT

It is with great pleasure and enthusiasm that we announce the merger of Adelta Legal and Alderman Redman Family Law.

With a combined experience of over 100 years of legal advice we are bringing these two pre-eminent firms together. The new firm will be known as Adelta Legal, incorporating Alderman Redman and will begin operating on Monday 29 January 2018.

Both firms have a strong reputation for the quality of their service, the quality of their staff, and the quality of the outcomes they achieve for clients.

This merger will provide a great number of benefits to our clients including:

- A broader offering of legal services including Wills & Estates, Family Law, Commercial Law, Property Law, Conveyancing, and Surrogacy;
- An emphasis on alternate dispute resolution through negotiation, mediation and collaborative decision making;
- An expansion of reach and opening times across three locations being Adelaide, Morphett Vale and Tea Tree Gully.

Adelta Legal was established in 2002 and is one of South Australia's leading wills, estates, estate litigation and commercial practices. Adelta's mission has been to provide their clients with big firm expertise and advice but with small firm attention and price.

Alderman Redman has been at the forefront of family law in South Australia since 1928. It was one of the first law firms in this State to specialise in Family Law and the first to provide family mediation. Alderman Redman is widely regarded as one of the top family law firms in Adelaide.

Both firms have had a strong commitment to provide professional, compassionate and practical advice with a courteous service at a reasonable cost. Both firms have an ethos of putting their clients first and providing a high level of customer service. We know this merger will benefit the clients of both firms.

The faces you know aren't changing — Tony Rice, Alison Evenden and Mark Jappe will continue to manage the new firm, while Julie Redman will head up family law and related services.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate contact either office.
